

System and Method for Security Policy

5

ABSTRACT

A network security policy monitoring system and method for performing network and security assessments based on system-wide policy. Real network traffic is analyzed to identify abnormal traffic patterns, system

- 10 vulnerabilities, and incorrect configuration of computer systems on a network, by listening on a network, logging events, and taking action.

